Synod 2020

On June 29, 2017 Archbishop Blair issued a Decree of Convocation of the Fourth Synod of The Archdiocese of Hartford. In this decree, Archbishop Blair states that “the purpose of this new Synod will be to consider the future of this local Church from the perspective of the New Evangelization, as presented by the magisterium of the Popes from the time of the Second Vatican Council, including the challenge articulated by Pope Francis when he writes:

I dream of a ‘missionary option,’ that is, a missionary impulse capable of transforming everything, so that the Church’s customs, ways of doing things, times and schedules, language and structures can be suitably channeled for the evangelization of today’s world rather than for her self-preservation. (Apostolic Exhortation Evangelii gaudium, no. 27”

As part of the Synod process each parish in the Archdiocese is asked to have a “Parish Listening Session”. The listening session is open to all parishioners. Our parish listening session will be: Thursday, August 23, 2018 at 6:30pm in the OLOV Parish Hall. At this listening session, each person will be given 2-3 minutes to answer each of the following questions:

What are we as an Archdiocese doing well?

What are we as an Archdiocese doing not so well?

What are we as an Archdiocese not doing that we should be?

If you would like to attend this listening session please come to the parish hall on the above date and time and share your thoughts.

Please keep in your prayers

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION—(Ursuline Nuns)

Sometimes the heat of summer translates into unrest in a city's streets. In the summer of 1834, popular sentiment against the presence of the Ursuline nuns near Boston reached a boiling point. An influx of Irish laborers had an impact on the work force in the city, and a deep-seated resentment against Catholics fueled the fire. The nuns supported themselves with a school, and most of the young women students were drawn from patrician Protestant families. Nevertheless, rumors fed by the saga of an unhappy junior sister and a later episode of a senior sister fleeing the place increased tensions. The city's selectmen were given a tour by the disgruntled sister, who by then had returned, and found all things in good order. That didn't please the mob, and the mother superior didn't help matters when she said that the bishop had platoons of Irishmen at hand, twenty thousand strong, to do marauders harm. By August 11, the convent had been invaded, ransacked, and burned to the ground. The nuns fled to Maine and Canada. The diocese attempted to recover losses, but the commonwealth offered only ten thousand dollars, which was rejected. Years later, a legislative bill for the state to rebuild the convent and school was roundly defeated. Yet the enterprise of Catholic education had great resilience, and in 1946, more than a hundred years after the riots, the Ursulines returned to Boston to re-establish an academy that endures to the present day.
