Please note: Family members or friends for whom a Mass is being offered are invited to bring up the Offertory gifts, please notify one of the ushers just before Mass.

The Solemnity of All Saints is celebrated on November 1. It is a solemnity, a holyday of obligation and the day that the Church honors all of God's saints, even those who have not been canonized by the Church. It is a family day of celebration—we celebrate the memory of those family members (sharing with us in the Mystical Body, the doctrine of the Communion of Saints) now sharing eternal happiness in the presence of God. We rejoice that they have reached their eternal goal and ask their prayers on our behalf so that we, too, may join them in heaven and praise God through all eternity.

The honoring of all Christian martyrs of the Faith was originally celebrated on May 13, the date established by the fourth century. Pope Boniface IV in 615 established it as the "Feast of All Martyrs" commemorating the dedication of the Pantheon, an ancient Roman temple, into a Christian church dedicated to the Blessed Virgin Mary and all the martyrs. By 741, the feast included not only martyrs, but all the saints in heaven as well, with the title changing to "Feast of All Saints" by 840.

In 844, Pope Gregory IV transferred the feast to November 1st, timing it around the harvests to be able to provide food for the pilgrims. Some scholars believe this was to substitute a feast for the pagan celebrations during that time of year. Pope Sixtus IV in 1484 established November 1 as a holyday of obligation and gave it both a vigil (known today as "All Hallows' Eve" or "Hallowe'en") and an eight-day period or octave to celebrate the feast.

This feast is marked with liturgical observances that have changed over the centuries. By 1955, the octave and vigil of All Saints were abrogated. Instead of a separate vigil on the calendar, the celebration begins the evening before, as mentioned in The General Norms for the Liturgical Year and the Calendar: Solemnities are counted as the principal days in the calendar and their observance begins with evening prayer of the preceding day. Some also have their own vigil Mass for use when Mass is celebrated in the evening of the preceding day.

In the Divine Office, or Liturgy of the Hours, solemnities and Sundays are begin with Evening Prayer I (the evening before) and Evening Prayer II (the evening of the solemnity).

The Parishioners of Our Lady of Victory invite you to a celebration of an ALL SOULS MASS

This Friday, November 2nd

7 p.m.

at Our Lady of Victory Church

We will remember all of our beloved dead, especially those who have died this past year from our parish community. All are invited to join in prayer for our beloved dead

A reception will be held in the hall following the service.

October 13th, 1917, 101 years ago, Our Lady made the last of 6 appearances to the 3 children of Fatima. OLOV hosted an 8 member Rosary on the very anniversary date, 10/13/18! After a morning of rain, Our Lady brought sunshine and a touch of warmth to the event, which brought reverence, smiles and fellowship. A blessed and holy event was felt by all. Next year's Fatima Rosary will be held on Saturday, October 12, 2019. Please think of it as a time of worship and prayer knowing you'll be joined by tens of thousands of people across the United States.

Beacon on the Hill Thanksgiving Food Drive

THANKSGIVING FOOD DRIVE

It's time for our annual Thanksgiving food drive. In the next few weeks, colored slips of paper will be in the pews of the churches and also by all the doors. Please, take them and return bags full of the items listed on the paper. Bring the bags to the altar of the church on the weekend of November 17th & 18th. Items will be brought to the Beacon on the Hill where they will be sorted and stored for delivery. Some items go out immediately for Thanksgiving baskets, while others are kept to provide for families in need at Christmas and throughout the winter. This drive keeps us going until our Lenten Food Drive in the Spring. Your kind support will help many local families and individuals in need.

THANK YOU!!!

A Tip of the Hat to YOU!!

This week we give a tip of the hat to our Hospitality Committee!!

This group of dedicated parishioners makes sure there is a pot of coffee, beverages and a snack ready for parishioners who stop by after Mass on the third weekend of most months. This ministry provides an opportunity for parishioners to say hello to friends or meet new friends after Mass, and at various church functions and receptions.

The members of the Hospitality Committee are friendly, welcoming and enjoy “serving God by serving others.”

The time commitment is approximately 3 hours per month. If you are interested in joining this group, please call the rectory and leave your name and phone number.
