BULLETIN REFLECTION FOR NOVEMBER 4, 2018 ... Deacon Frank Bevino

St. Thomas Aquinas once said “the things we love tells us who we are.” When we say we love someone what does that mean? What does it tell us about ourselves? Is love reserved for only people we know and like? In our readings this weekend we hear the same words in our Old Testament (Deuteronomy 6:2-6) reading and again Jesus repeats them in our Gospel:

“Hear, O Israel! The Lord our God is Lord alone! You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your mind.”

Jesus, in Mark’s Gospel, however carries it one step further, he adds a second commandment. “You shall love your neighbor as yourself.” First He acknowledges from his own Jewish tradition the single most important article of faith.....to love God. Then he attaches a second commandment which He lives out his entire life.to love all others. Jesus goes on to say that there are no greater commandments than these. Sounds simple enough, but as we know sometimes impossible to live. We are torn by our emotions, social and political views and our sense of self-preservation. It’s easy to love someone who doesn’t threaten us or our well-being. It’s not easy to love someone who wants what we have and seeks to attain the same for themselves. Yet this causes you and I to miss the mark on the second part, love of neighbor. It’s easy to love just God. There’s no threat there.

Jesus understood the difficulty with this second part. He was the victim of much hatred from his own people. His teachings threatened the status quo, the security of the people that prayed to God and who “loved God”. Perhaps we can see that same threat today in the migration of thousands of refugees from Central America and Mexico. Perhaps we can see that threat from the poor, the homeless, the mentally ill, people of different faiths and race. We often hear “how will we be able to take care of all these people when they cause our taxes to go up. They don’t have jobs! I go to work everyday to provide for myself and family and they don’t”. These are the common arguments we hear when we are asked to love people who have much less than you and I. They too want jobs, homes and food and some comfort in life. Jesus understood all this when he gave us the second commandment.

Jesus also understood that while it is easy to say I love God, He made it clear that the only way to truly love God is to love our neighbors....all our neighbors. Even those who live hundreds and thousands of miles away. St Paul says:

Put on then, as God's chosen ones, holy and beloved, compassionate hearts, kindness, humility, meekness, and patience, bearing with one another . And above all these put on love, which binds everything together in perfect harmony. (Colossians 3,12-14)

THINK CHRISTMAS!!!!

Beacon on the Hill Thanksgiving Food Drive

THANKSGIVING FOOD DRIVE

It's time for our annual Thanksgiving food drive. In the next few weeks, colored slips of paper will be in the pews of the churches and also by all the doors. Please, take them and return bags full of the items listed on the paper. Bring the bags to the altar of the church on the weekend of November 17th & 18th. Items will be brought to the Beacon on the Hill where they will be sorted and stored for delivery. Some items go out immediately for Thanksgiving baskets, while others are kept to provide for families in need at Christmas and throughout the winter. This drive keeps us going until our Lenten Food Drive in the Spring. Your kind support will help many local families and individuals in need.

THANK YOU!!!

GIVING TREE

A Giving Tree will be set up in the Church Hall in early November. Though some of the gift may not appear like Christmas gifts, they are what the various agencies have requested for those who are less fortunate. Gift cards are often just the right thing for a teenager or a mom who needs to provide groceries. Or other vital necessities for her family. This way, the Christmas spirit will last all year long! Please take one or more ornaments and return the items—UNWRAPPED—to the church. Bring items back to church by the week end of December 8th and 9th to make sure they can be delivered before Christmas.

Thank you for your generous support!

God Bless You!
