Today the Church celebrates the Solemnity of the Baptism of Our Lord. This brings to an end the season of Christmas. The Church recalls Our Lord's second manifestation or epiphany which occurred on the occasion of His baptism in the Jordan. Jesus descended into the River to sanctify its waters and to give them the power to beget sons of God. The event takes on the importance of a second creation in which the entire Trinity intervenes.

In the Eastern Church this feast is called Theophany because at the baptism of Christ in the River Jordan God appeared in three persons. The baptism of John was a sort of sacramental preparatory for the Baptism of Christ. It moved men to sentiments of repentance and induced them to confess their sins. Christ did not need the baptism of John. Although He appeared in the "substance of our flesh" and was recognized "outwardly like unto ourselves", He was absolutely sinless and impeccable. He conferred upon the water the power of the true Baptism which would remove all the sins of the world: "Behold the Lamb of God, behold Him Who takes away the sin of the world".

Many of the incidents which accompanied Christ's baptism are symbolical of what happened at our Baptism. At Christ's baptism the Holy Spirit descended upon Him; at our Baptism the Trinity took its abode in our soul. At His baptism Christ was proclaimed the "Beloved Son" of the Father; at our Baptism we become the adopted sons of God. At Christ's baptism the heavens were opened; at our Baptism heaven was opened to us. At His baptism Jesus prayed; after our Baptism we must pray to avoid actual sin.

CHRISTMAS AT OLOV 2018

Why we do what we do at OLOV and do it so well

Dear Father Dillon, Beacon on the Hill and OLOV Parishioners:

On behalf of all the families who were blessed this Christmas season by your wonderful church outreach ministry, Beacon on the Hill it's volunteers, as well as the generous hearts of your parishioners, I am happy to be able to pass on their gratitude for all everyone has done for them

It's easy to see that it was no small task for this "Christmas Giving Tree" to happen for West Haven families and to realize the tireless efforts behind it; beginning with Rose Ann Gulisano and Barbara Messina and their volunteers, who were a big part of making it happen! Many thanks to them for their hours of work and caring thoughtful hearts. Many struggling, low income families send their gratitude that your efforts have allowed their children to be snug and warm this winter in new warm pajamas, hoodies, coats, hats, scarfs and gloves thanks to the generous and kind hearted efforts of all who partnered with Our Lady of Victory church to make it happen! Bless your hearts!

"Going to Seacrest helps me to take time to slow down and remember what the Christmas Season is all about. It brings joy, hope and happiness to those we encounter! It makes them feel good and in turn it makes me feel good, all by sharing the gift of time! It is such a warm and rewarding experience to see people's faces light up when we knock on their doors to deliver the poinsettias and to wish them a Merry Christmas from all of us at OLOV Church. Not only the residents; but the staff as well are so appreciative and cannot thank us enough for all that OLOV does for them throughout the year but especially during the Christmas and Easter Seasons." Jean Lynch

If you have been inspired by the reflections of our volunteers participating in this wonderful ministry, please consider joining us this April as we deliver plants and palms to our homebound.
