TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Frequent fliers today have many ways to accrue air miles, so one doesn't always have to endure long hours in cramped seats to earn free hours in cramped seats. In St. Paul's day, there were no such perks, nor would there have been any legal system for him to protest the shipwrecks he endured. He had other rewards in mind. The churches that he established in the catalogue of cities from today's first reading must have been very different from one another. Language, culture, customs, religious history, obstacles to community, social challenges, the places where they met, their clothing, their bread and wine, all distinct, particular to the area.

There were social customs as well: in a Christian household, the only place where a slave would be able to stand legally as an equal with the master would be at the table of the Lord, because at that table a new world of reconciliation was imaged. While Paul revered local customs, he was relentless about challenging the ways that people lived their Christian lives and how their worship reflected them. It is much the same today, as a global Catholic Church seeks to respect local customs and culture, allowing for differences in many things, yet always giving expression to the underlying presence of Christ, who binds us all together into his body.

Thank you all for your generous donations to last week's diaper drive. The cost of disposable diapers adds up so quickly. However, compared to Mary who used cloth diapers when Jesus was born, we count ourselves extremely lucky to have this option. On Mother's Day, Fr. Dillon talked about the sheep recognizing the Shepherd's voice. Did you know that babies in the womb recognize their mother's voice before they are born? Pray for all those worrying about how to cope with a pregnancy.

Emergency Calls for a Priest

Too often we get called for the Sacrament of the Sick when someone has become unconscious and is very close to death. Far better to call the priest earlier: The sick person can be part of the sacramental moment, and Father has time to get there. IMPORTANT NOTE : sometimes Father is not available for immediate response, so please, if there is someone at home is elderly and failing, or battling cancer, call us earlier rather than later so we can give appropriate pastoral service to your loved one.

Altar Servers Needed

Any young people who have received First Holy Communion from elementary school through high school are welcome. Please call the rectory at (203) 934-6357 if you are interested.
