TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

We owe today's beautiful feast to a valiant woman who suffered a great deal to establish a feast out of her love for the Eucharist. Juliana was a nun in Belgium in the thirteenth century. She served in a hospital for lepers. She became convinced through her prayer that the liturgical year was incomplete because it had no feast for the Eucharist. Her efforts were not welcome, and a supervising priest sought to punish her for promoting a feast that "nobody wanted." He even had her accused of financial mismanagement and banished her from her convent.

Shortly after she was exiled, the bishop approved the feast. It quickly spread through Europe. In those days, people very seldom received Holy Communion, and so the processions through the streets with the Eucharistic bread not only led to an awareness of Christ's hunger to be with us, but prepared the way for a deeper desire to receive Christ's Body and Blood in more frequent Communion. The feast grew rapidly, but Juliana disappeared into poverty and a hidden life. She ended her days as an " anchoress," a woman living in seclusion in a room attached to a parish church. Imagine her delight at seeing us gathered at the table of the Lord on this day, aware of Christ's presence in our midst, sharing fully in Christ's Body and Blood. Our celebration today invests her struggle and sorrows with dignity and meaning.

Vocation Reflections—June 23rd

Jesus speaks to the crowds about the kingdom of God. He also heals those in need, pointing to the healing effect of the Eucharistic bread.

He provides for the multitudes in abundance.

Do you want to feed the multitudes as a priest or religious? If you believe you do, call Fr. Michael Casey, Director of Vocations, Pastoral Center, Tel. (860) 761-7456, email: vocations@aohct.org or visit the web at www.hartfordpriest.com

Following Mary's Pregnancy week 13

Mary and Jesus are on the way there! The 1st trimester is now done. Baby Jesus (and our 13 week old babies) have taste buds all over their mouths. They will touch their mouths with their hands 50 times an hour! I wonder how baby hands taste. Baby's whole body, except the top of the head & back respond to light touch. Body weight has increased 60% this past week. Such a miracle, yet God blesses us with these precious defenseless babies to love and to care for every day. Let us pray for women and their unborn children this day and every day.

Emergency Calls for a Priest

Too often we get called for the Sacrament of the Sick when someone has become unconscious and is very close to death. Far better to call the priest earlier: The sick person can be part of the sacramental moment, and Father has time to get there. IMPORTANT NOTE : sometimes Father is not available for immediate response, so please, if there is someone at home is elderly and failing, or battling cancer, call us earlier rather than later so we can give appropriate pastoral service to your loved one.

Available Masses June , July & August 2019
