Staying Informed: Our Future

Without a doubt, our Parish family has experienced many challenges in the last few years. As the Archdiocese continues to assess its Catholic communities, we can expect more to come. In an effort to keep us all knowledgeable and up-to-date with the latest information about our future, this column will appear each week.

WHERE WE STAND: Since February, our parishioners, Fr. Dillon and our Archdiocesan contacts have been exploring and brainstorming ways for us to move forward despite financial and building maintenance difficulties. The grounds and buildings of both Our Lady of Victory Church and St. John Vianney Church have been appraised and assessed with the help of H. Pearce Realty and other market experts. Their reports and our parish recommendation were submitted to the Archdiocesan decision-makers and have been accepted. We have permission to move forward our plan, as outlined here.

OUR PARISH PLAN: “After discussion with parishioners and parish leaders, our best course of action will be to sell the Our Lady of Victory property and relocate the parish to 300 Captain Thomas Boulevard,” says Fr. Dillon. This is the recommendation he submitted to the

“Since God created the world,
He also created reality.”
-- Pope Francis

Archdiocese and the one with which we are proceeding.

Fr. Dillon said the appraisals show that the buildings currently on the St. John Vianney campus need very little work in order to serve the parish community. The buildings on the Victory campus (including the school, rectory, convent and church), face a long list of expensive “fixes”:

- Replacement of the heating and air conditioning system in the church
- New roofs on all buildings
- Water damage
- Utility expenses for maintaining all four buildings and the grounds continue to rise
- Parking lot and walkway repair

“As we work with our Realtor and Archdiocesan lawyers to put the church and grounds on the market, I know you will join me in prayer for its successful sale. Thank you for your patience and understanding as we head into our future with hope and openness to what the Holy Spirit has in store for us.”

NEXT STEPS: In the coming weeks, Our Lady of Victory Church and grounds will officially be put up for sale. The parish community of Our Lady of Victory will move to 300 Captain Thomas Boulevard pending it’s sale. Watch this space for updates.

Sacraments

Baptism

Parents who wish to have their child baptized are asked to call the rectory at (203) 934-6357 to prepare properly for this joyous celebration.

Attendance at a Baptismal Prep class is required. The Archdiocese of Hartford mandates this program prior to Baptism. Please call the rectory to register.

Marriage

Call the rectory to make arrangements to be married. The Archdiocese of Hartford requires a minimum of six months for marriage preparation..

Call (203) 934-6357 for information.

Confessions

The Sacrament of Reconciliation is available every Saturday afternoon from 3:00-4:00PM at Our Lady of Victory Church. You may also call to make an appointment if needed.

Sacrament of the Sick

Should anyone need Anointing of the Sick, call Father at the rectory (203) 934-6357 to make an appointment.

RCIA (Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults)

This is an opportunity for those interested in learning what the Catholic Church teaches and wish to be baptized, or to complete their Sacraments of Initiation with the Sacraments of Holy Communion and Confirmation. Classes generally begin in the fall. Please call the Rectory at (203) 934-6357 for further information.

SPONSOR CERTIFICATES

The Archdiocese of Hartford requires sponsorship forms in order to serve as a godparent or Confirmation sponsor. You must be an active parishioner, completed all your sacraments and be in a valid marriage. The use of envelopes help us verify your status. Please consider utilizing them. Sponsorship forms and registration forms are available at the Rectory.

Please call (203)934-6357 with any questions you may have.

Ministry & Organizations

Homebound Ministry

Please, contact the rectory if you, a family member or a friend is unable to come to church. We have people to visit at home and our Eucharistic Ministers can bring Communion. Please, call us to make arrangements.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

The readings today center on mindfulness, awareness of where we stand in God's plan. The mountain of Sinai carries a message of the majesty and distance of God, while Jesus' presence as host of the banquet speaks of intimacy and mystery. September's shadow calls us all to mindfulness as we prepare to return to life outside of summer. The Christian life holds these two places of knowledge of God in careful balance. Even in the accounts of the Passion we see the table of the upper room in balance with the Mount of Olives.

Altar means "high place," yet it is also a table. The former liturgy of the Latin Rite began with the priest bowing at the foot of the altar's three steps, chanting Introibo ad altare Dei, or "I will go to the altar of God," followed by the altar servers' response, "The God who gives joy to my youth." Many parishioners can recall and recite this scene by heart. As with so many things in liturgy, there are layers of meaning in our worship. The altar table evokes memories of the high places once reserved for encounter with the holy, and the intimacy of the table where hospitality draws us to share food and drink.

THANK YOU for your faithful stewardship to our parish! God Bless you

The youth choir is seeking new members. We meet on Tuesday afternoons at 5:00 P.M. in the church and rehearse for 60 minutes. We will begin our rehearsals this year on Tuesday September 10th, 2019. I encourage any child/teen who likes to sing and curious about the choir to come and try one rehearsal on this day. There will be no obligation to return if the child/teen does not wish to continue.

We sing every second Sunday of the month at the 11:00 A.M. Mass, Lessons and carols with the adults in December and Christmas Eve at 4 P.M. We have a lot of fun and treats are given out after each rehearsal. Come and raise your voice! If you have any questions contact me, Ed Perez, music director at 203 934 6357

From The Music Director

Do, Re, Mi, Fa So.....being a part of the music ministry has crossed your mind but the difficulty of the music or the commitment has kept you away.

I am providing a unique opportunity this upcoming Christmas season. The OLOV music ministry will be combining with the chorus members from St. John XXIII parish to participate in our annual lessons and Carols on Sunday December 8 at 4 PM. There will be approximately 7 rehearsals for this event and most of those rehearsals will take place at St. Lawrence Church. The first two rehearsals will be on Tuesday September 17 and 24 at 7 PM at St. Lawrence.

With that being said, if you are a vocalist with some prior choral experience and want to “take the plunge” OLOV music ministry would love to have you and welcomes you with open arms. Regular choir rehearsals begin on Wednesday September 11 at 7 PM.

Contact me at 203 934 6357 if either of these scenarios interest you.

Sincerely,
Ed Perez

Emergency Calls for a Priest

Too often we get called for the Sacrament of the Sick when someone has become unconscious and is very close to death. Far better to call the priest earlier: The sick person can be part of the sacramental moment, and Father has time to get there. IMPORTANT NOTE : sometimes Father is not available for immediate response, so please, if there is someone at home is elderly and failing, or battling cancer, call us earlier rather than later so we can give appropriate pastoral service to your loved one.

Altar Servers Needed

Any young people who have received First Holy Communion from elementary school through high school are welcome. Please call the rectory at (203) 934-6357 if you are interested.

ST. JOHN XXIII LADIES GUILD

The parish of St. John XXIII has a vibrant and active Ladies Guild. This past year, we worked with OLOV's Social Justice Committee and found many ways we complement each other.

At this time, we would like to invite the ladies of OLOV to join our Guild, which is committed to bringing the women of our parishes into a family of loving, supportive Christian women.

We are currently conducting our annual membership drive for 2019-2020. Our first meeting will take place on Monday, September 9, 7:00 p.m., classroom 3, St. Louis School. No RSVP is required. Please feel free to join us and bring a
