Staying Informed: Our Future

Without a doubt, our Parish family has experienced many challenges in the last few years. As the Archdiocese continues to assess its Catholic communities, we can expect more to come. In an effort to keep us all knowledgeable and up-to-date with the latest information about our future, this column will appear each week.

WHERE WE STAND: Since February, our parishioners, Fr. Dillon and our Archdiocesan contacts have been exploring and brainstorming ways for us to move forward despite financial and building maintenance difficulties. The grounds and buildings of both Our Lady of Victory Church and St. John Vianney Church have been appraised and assessed with the help of H. Pearce Realty and other market experts. Their reports and our parish recommendation were submitted to the Archdiocesan decision-makers and have been accepted. We have permission to move forward our plan, as outlined here.

OUR PARISH PLAN: “After discussion with parishioners and parish leaders, our best course of action will be to sell the Our Lady of Victory property and relocate the parish to 300 Captain Thomas Boulevard,” says Fr. Dillon. This is the recommendation he submitted to the

“Since God created
the world,
He also created reality.”
-- Pope Francis

Archdiocese and the one with which we are proceeding.

Fr. Dillon said the appraisals show that the buildings currently on the St. John Vianney campus need very little work in order to serve the parish community. The buildings on the Victory campus (including the school, rectory, convent and church), face a long list of expensive “fixes”:

- Replacement of the heating and air conditioning system in the church
- New roofs on all buildings
- Water damage
- Utility expenses for maintaining all four buildings and the grounds continue to rise
- Parking lot and walkway repair

“As we work with our Realtor and Archdiocesan lawyers to put the church and grounds on the market, I know you will join me in prayer for its successful sale. Thank you for your patience and understanding as we head into our future with hope and openness to what the Holy Spirit has in store for us.”

NEXT STEPS: In the coming weeks, Our Lady of Victory Church and grounds will officially be put up for sale. The parish community of Our Lady of Victory will move to 300 Captain Thomas Boulevard pending it’s sale. Watch this space for updates.

Sacraments

Baptism

Parents who wish to have their child baptized are asked to call the rectory at (203) 934-6357 to prepare properly for this joyous celebration.

Attendance at a Baptismal Prep class is required. The Archdiocese of Hartford mandates this program prior to Baptism. Please call the rectory to register.

Marriage

Call the rectory to make arrangements to be married. The Archdiocese of Hartford requires a minimum of six months for marriage preparation..

Call (203) 934-6357 for information.

Confessions

The Sacrament of Reconciliation is available every Saturday afternoon from 3:00-4:00PM at Our Lady of Victory Church. You may also call to make an appointment if needed.

Sacrament of the Sick

Should anyone need Anointing of the Sick, call Father at the rectory (203) 934-6357 to make an appointment.

RCIA (Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults)

This is an opportunity for those interested in learning what the Catholic Church teaches and wish to be baptized, or to complete their Sacraments of Initiation with the Sacraments of Holy Communion and Confirmation. Classes generally begin in the fall. Please call the Rectory at (203) 934-6357 for further information.

Ministry & Organizations

Homebound Ministry

Please, contact the rectory if you, a family member or a friend is unable to come to church. We have people to visit at home and our Eucharistic Ministers can bring Communion. Please, call us to make arrangements.

Whistle While You Work

Hanging on the walls of the basement office in my home are two fairly large poster prints. One is a photo of Grand Central Station in New York City taken in 1939 and the other is a picture of steelworkers who were building the Empire State Building in 1930 sitting on a steel girder enjoying lunch high above the Manhattan skyline.

At a time when we celebrate the great accomplishments in technology that have given us iPhones, Facebook and the convenience of ordering online anything and receiving it at our doorsteps in minutes or hours, little attention is made of the major works of art that stands as a tribute to the American worker such as Grand Central Station and the magnificent presence of the Empire State Building on 34th Street in NYC. Everyday more than 750,000 people pass through Grand Central Station. Most of these people are going to and from their jobs coming from the tri-state area of New York, New Jersey and Connecticut. Many of the people who use Grand Central Station are the 15,000 people who work in the Empire State Building alone.

My point is that while we celebrate the titans of business and industry in the press, in movies and documentaries we seem to have lost the gratitude and appreciation of the workers who built these great structures decades ago. We need to be conscious of the people today who maintain these buildings daily year after year. They are black skinned, brown skinned, yellow skinned and white skinned. They speak many languages and worship God in different ways or not at all but in their need to sustain themselves and their families they allow you and I to be able to work and perform our services to sustain our lives and to help others.

Grand Central and the Empire State Building are just two of the thousands of buildings throughout the United States which stands as a monument to the American worker. Workers who were our mothers, fathers, grandfathers, grandmothers, aunts and uncles. Workers who have migrated from all parts of the world to build and maintain these great structures that still function to make America work.

This past week we celebrated Labor Day. Let us remember the ordinary everyday workers who make this country run. They don't make great scientific or technological discoveries or invent the efficiencies which get us our goods and services quickly. They clean our houses and buildings, they make sure they get us to and from our jobs daily. They clean our rest rooms, prepare our food, pick up our trash and make sure our baggage gets to the same destination we travel to. The workers of America allow you and I to work every day. They keep our sick healthy and safe, they assist our seniors in getting through their daily lives, they get our children to school safely and teach them how to read and write.

If there ever is an example of sisters and brothers in Christ functioning daily as a family it is the work we do every day for each other. God created us to love Him with all our heart, and with all our strength. We do this daily just by doing the tasks to make ourselves live. Celebrate the common worker that we encounter daily because without them you and I could not do what God calls us to do. Billionaires and millionaires are the visible signs of American success however it is the worker that we encounter daily that we need to thank. Without them there would be no billionaires or millionaires. Deacon Frank Bevvino

The youth choir is seeking new members. We meet on Tuesday afternoons at 5:00 P.M. in the church and rehearse for 60 minutes. We will begin our rehearsals this year on Tuesday September 10th, 2019. I encourage any child/teen who likes to sing and curious about the choir to come and try one rehearsal on this day. There will be no obligation to return if the child/teen does not wish to continue.

We sing every second Sunday of the month at the 11:00 A.M. Mass, Lessons and carols with the adults in December and Christmas Eve at 4 P.M. We have a lot of fun and treats are given out after each rehearsal. Come and raise your voice! If you have any questions contact me, Ed Perez, music director at 203 934 6357

From The Music Director

Do, Re, Mi, Fa So.....being a part of the music ministry has crossed your mind but the difficulty of the music or the commitment has kept you away.

I am providing a unique opportunity this upcoming Christmas season. The OLOV music ministry will be combining with the chorus members from St. John XXIII parish to participate in our annual lessons and Carols on Sunday December 8 at 4 PM. There will be approximately 7 rehearsals for this event and most of those rehearsals will take place at St. Lawrence Church. The first two rehearsals will be on Tuesday September 17 and 24 at 7 PM at St. Lawrence.

With that being said, if you are a vocalist with some prior choral experience and want to “take the plunge” OLOV music ministry would love to have you and welcomes you with open arms. Regular choir rehearsals begin on Wednesday September 11 at 7 PM.

Contact me at 203 934 6357 if either of these scenarios interest you.

Sincerely,
Ed Perez

ST. JOHN XXIII LADIES GUILD

The parish of St. John XXIII has a vibrant and active Ladies Guild. This past year, we worked with OLOV's Social Justice Committee and found many ways we complement each other.

At this time, we would like to invite the ladies of OLOV to join our Guild, which is committed to bringing the women of our parishes into a family of loving, supportive Christian women.

We are currently conducting our annual membership drive for 2019-2020. Our first meeting will take place on Monday, September 9, 7:00 p.m., classroom 3, St. Louis School. No RSVP is required. Please feel free to join us and bring a friend!
