COVID Pushes Us Away; Jesus Brings Us Closer

A letter from Fr. Dillon

I am beginning this week with what may be old news by the time you read this, and I hope that it is. I decided to have a COVID-19 test after learning that someone tested positive in the household of a person I visited for more than 15 minutes. The person with whom I was in contact had tested negative. I found this out shortly before the weekend Mass schedule was to begin so out of an abundance of caution, I cancelled all Masses until I was tested and had received the results. My test was last Tuesday morning.

I truly believe that the test will come back negative because I follow all of the guidelines regarding distancing, mask wearing and hand washing, but the safety and health of our parishioners is my first concern. If we are in church: the result was negative -- good news. Thank you for the prayers, concern and words of support.

Christmas will be with us in 18 days, with the celebration of the Christmas Eve Masses. I want to encourage everyone to please sign-up early, either via SignUpGenius or a phone call to the office (see pg. 7). I don't want anyone left out. Because Christmas traditionally brings large numbers of people to church, we can only allow those who have signed up in to maintain proper social distancing. Out of fairness to those who come without registering, we are going to assume that those who have signed up but have not arrived 10 minutes before Mass, are not attending. At that time, we will allow into the church those who haven't registered until we have reached our limit.

So, please come early so as not to miss out.

Last Sunday was the First Sunday of Advent and I was going to mention in my homily that in our COVID world we are continually reminded to stay distant from others. But Advent is all about getting closer -- closer to Jesus. This year, with all of the stress and anxieties with which we live, Advent can be an excellent opportunity to make a serious and concerted effort to become closer to Jesus.

Let's take some of the time that we are spending home to read the Sacred Scriptures, enter into devotional prayer, meditate, listen to sacred music or sit in silence waiting for the Lord to speak to us. What better way is there to help us navigate the challenges we all face? Give it a try, you might find out that this is exactly what is missing and needed in your life.

Keep well and safe.

Instead of our Usual Giving Tree, Gift Cards Requested

For Christmas 2020, we plan to continue our parish's support for those in need by providing much-needed assistance. This year we will continue our support of some of the local agencies that spread God's kindness and love to others - including the West Haven Family Resource Center, the West Haven Community House, and Beth El Shelter in Milford.

Our greatest (and most necessary) change is this year we will not display a "Giving Tree" with gift tags. We would greatly appreciate gift cards in any amount to the stores listed at the right. They will be used by those in need and the agencies that support them.

You may drop off cards to the Parish Office or bring them to Mass and deposit them in the collection baskets.

Your kindness and generosity are greatly appreciated!

Proclaiming God's Coming

By Deacon Frank Bevvino

In our first reading on this 2nd Sunday of Advent, the prophet Isaiah proclaims the coming of the Lord. Isaiah speaks of God bringing “comfort” to the people. God will relieve the Jewish people of their responsibility of solely adhering to the law. A “new” covenant will be given and Isaiah promises that the Lord will make “straight the paths” of life. The Lord God will shepherd His people like a shepherd cares for his flock. Shout from the hilltops this coming, “the glory of God will be revealed.”

Our God comes with power, rules with a strong arm, and leads His people with care. In the Jewish faith, “baptism” was a process of purification. It was a ritual to cleanse people from the impurities of life (their sins) before they were able, under Jewish law, to worship God. Similar to Christian Baptism, water was the dominant symbol in the Jewish rite. However, this ritual was repeated many times in the lifetime of a Jew to cleanse him from continuing impurities.

Isaiah's proclamation of God sending a messenger is fulfilled in the appearance of John the Baptist in our Gospel this weekend. “I will send a messenger before you to prepare your way...” John the Baptist is the successor to all the great prophets of the Old Testament. As the prophet of the New Testament, John proclaims not a Baptism of purification, but a Baptism of repentance and forgiveness of sins. It is a Baptism filled with the Spirit of God given to us by the one, as proclaimed by John, to come and show us the way to the Father.

Amidst the throngs of people seeking this purification from John, he announces that one more powerful than he is to come after him. John's proclamation is a continuation of Isaiah's message announcing the coming of God into the world to bring comfort and joy, to make straight the paths of life. John the Baptist and Isaiah are the prophets who link the Covenant God made with the Jewish people with the New Covenant given to us by the life, death and resurrection of Jesus.

As recipients of this Baptism, unlike the Jewish people who needed to be purified many times in their lives to worship God, our Baptism is a life born into repentance and forgiveness by the sacrifice that Jesus made for us. Our continuing responsibility for this great sacrament of Baptism is to continue to proclaim God's mercy and forgiveness by how we conduct our lives.

We are successors to John the Baptist. We, the prophets of God, proclaim Jesus' promise to return a second time to take us to God His Father, to be with Him for all eternity. As we prepare for this celebration of Christ's life, let us renew our Baptismal commitment of living our faith by word and example in God and the promise of Jesus Christ. God's mercy and love is everlasting. Our gratitude and love are returned in our never-ending faith in loving others as His Son loves us.

Please Pray for Vocations

If two of you join your voices on earth to pray for anything whatever, it shall be granted you by my Father in heaven. Where only a few come together in Christ's name on earth, Christ is present with them.

Pray for an increase in vocations to priesthood and religious life.

To discern a vocation, call Fr. Michael Casey, Director of Vocations, Archdiocesan Pastoral Center, Tel. 860-761-7456, E-mail vocations@aohct.org or visit the web at www.hartfordpriest.com.

Drivers Needed

The Social Justice Committee would like to acknowledge the work of so many during this pandemic, specifically those who have been feeding the hungry in so many ways under the awesome direction of Deacon Dean.

Now, here's where you can help:

DRIVERS ARE NEEDED FOR TWO ON-GOING EVENTS:

1. Taking food to seniors who cannot get out, every other Saturday morning at 10:00. You would sign up for the Saturday that you can do it. The more drivers, the less often you work.
2. Picking up salvaged food from Cumberland Farms on Monday mornings, or possibly other mornings. Again, the more drivers we have, the less often you are scheduled.

Sunday's Readings: Dec. 6

"...This Word of God proclaimed in the liturgy possesses a special sacramental power to bring about in us what it proclaims. ... How, then, do we respond to this wonderful gift of God's Word? We respond in word and song, in posture and gesture, in silent meditation and, most important of all, by listening attentively to that Word as it is proclaimed." -- General Instruction of the Roman Missal, United States Catholic Conference of Bishops.

First Reading — The rugged land shall be made a plain; the rough country, a broad valley (Isaiah 40:1-5, 9-11).

Second Reading — Conduct yourselves in holiness, hastening the coming of the day of God (2 Peter 3:8-14).

Gospel — I have baptized you with water; he will baptize you with the Holy Spirit (Mark 1:1-8).
