Spring "Refresh"

A letter from Fr. Dillon

Dear Parishioners,

On April 10-11, Boy Scout Jon Gorman carried out his Eagle Scout project which included work done here at Our Lady of Victory. He painted the parish hall entrance area and the hallway that leads to the restrooms. He also cleaned out and installed shelving in the storage room next to the stage. The entrance needed a "refresh" and the new paint certainly accomplished this. (One day we'll have events in the hall again and you will be able to see this.) One thing we need of here is storage space; to have the storage closet next to the stage cleaned out and organized is something that is of great benefit to us. I genuinely appreciate the initiative, planning and hard work that Jon put into his project and congratulate him on a job well done.

You may have noticed, as you arrived for Mass last weekend, that almost all the shrubbery on the first island in the parking lot has been removed. I know when I exited the parking lot, I found it very difficult to see if any vehicles were approaching from the side. Also, with the pedestrian traffic from the Surf Side apartments, having the shrubbery in place blinded drivers from seeing them; especially those who use an electric scooter or wheelchair. In the interest of safety for drivers and pedestrians it seemed best to remove the shrubs and also have a uniform look to the islands.

This Spring we certainly were blessed with how the magnolia tree in the courtyard outside the church came into blossom. I saw many people taking photos of the tree or selfies by the tree. Last Saturday, a woman brought her mother, by wheelchair, from Surf Side to admire it and they too took photos with the tree in the background.

I know that our parish volunteer gardeners are eager to begin work on the various areas that they tend on our grounds. Last year, everything looked so nice and added so much to the beauty of our surroundings. This year, I'm sure we'll see more of the same. I've also let our gardeners know that once the Easter flowers are "done," they may have the bulbs to plant on our grounds. Spring is springing up all around us!

Weekly Offertory: $8,594.73

Apr. 5-11, 2021

Your financial support is always appreciated as we celebrate the Easter Season, prepare to expand our prayerful community, and grow our outreach and service to others.

Parish Monthly Devotion for April: *The Blessed Sacrament

In these difficult days, even though we can not receive Jesus physically, we can still unite ourselves to Jesus in The Blessed Sacrament spiritually.

An Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.

I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You in my soul.

Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally,
come at least spiritually into my heart.

I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You.

Never permit me to be separated from you. Amen.

Meeting Jesus Again

By Deacon Frank Bevvino

Our readings this weekend continue the reactions of the disciples to Jesus' appearances at different times after His crucifixion. The emphasis by Jesus in these encounters is that He, prior to death, repeatedly spoke of what was to happen. Jesus again reminds His followers how it all was written in the Old Testament and was foretold by the early prophets. It is still unfathomable to His followers that Jesus is in their midst speaking and eating with them. In their unbelief, both after His resurrection and before His crucifixion, the disciples are unprepared in how to deal with Jesus and His words.

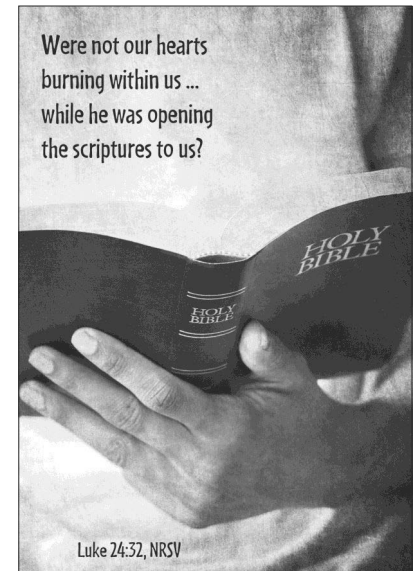

The first reading from Acts and the Gospel come from St. Luke and they complement each other, providing us with evidence of the disciples' encounters with Jesus. They show the power of the Holy Spirit filling St. Peter and the others with the knowledge, wisdom and courage to proclaim Christ Risen to the people.

Our Gospel comes on the heels of Jesus' meeting two of His disciples on the Road to Emmaus. These disciples tell how Jesus told them everything that happened and then, while breaking bread, revealed the words spoken at the Last Supper: the bread and the wine being His Body and blood. Still, many of them were doubtful and unbelieving. It is at this point that Jesus appears again and "they thought they were seeing a ghost." (Lk 24: 37) Jesus invites them to touch His hands and feet. He questions their unbelief and then, to still prove His appearance, asks them for something to eat and consumes it. At this point, Jesus reminds them that He told them all this would happen beforehand; that it was written in the Law of Moses, the prophets and the psalms.

Our first reading demonstrates the power of the Holy Spirit and Jesus' command to spread the Good News. St. Peter holds nothing back. He, who once denied knowledge of Jesus and was filled with doubt and skepticism, is now proclaiming the Risen Christ and repeating to the people what Christ said to them. Those who once denied and fled from the possibility of their own arrest and death, are now witnessing to Christ. They have become witnesses to the Gospel and begin through the power of the Holy Spirit to bring the message to many people.

We, as descendants of St. Peter through the sacrament of Baptism and filled with the Holy Spirit, are also called to proclaim the Risen Christ. St. John, in our second reading, sums it up by saying we can only love God by keeping His commandments, that is, by loving our neighbors and sharing the GOOD News of love and mercy.

Sunday's Readings: April 18

"...This Word of God proclaimed in the liturgy possesses a special sacramental power to bring about in us what it proclaims. ... How, then, do we respond to this wonderful gift of God's Word? We respond in word and song, in posture and gesture, in silent meditation and, most important of all, by listening attentively to that Word as it is proclaimed." -- General Instruction of the Roman Missal, United States Catholic Conference of Bishops.

First Reading — The author of life you put to death, but God raised him from the dead (Acts 3:13-15, 17-19).

Second Reading — We have an Advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous one (1 John 2:1-5a).

Gospel — Thus it is written that the Christ would suffer and rise from the dead on the third day (Luke 24:35-48).

Stations on the Boardwalk

On Good Friday, April 2, Deacon Dean and Bill Armour led a hardy group of parishioners through the Stations of the Cross on the Boardwalk.

Please Pray for Our Confirmation Candidates

During the next two weeks, let us pray for our Confirmation Candidates, their parents, and Catechists as the Sacrament is received on April 23, 24, or 30.

Let us pray...

God, through these Sacraments you have filled us with the desire to become faithful Christians.

As we continue to grow in wisdom and knowledge, we ask that you remain with us, that you respond to our hopes, that you answer our prayers.

*We ask this through your Son, Christ our Lord.
Amen.*

CLOSING SONG: GLORY IN THE CROSS

Easter

1. Let us ever glory in the cross of Christ,
our salvation and our hope.
Let us bow in homage to the Lord of Life,
who was broken to make us whole.
There is no greater love, as blessed as this:
to lay down one's life for a friend.
Let us ever glory in the cross of Christ
and the triumph of God's great love.
2. Let us ever glory in the cross of Christ
who is risen from the grave.
He will come in glory to receive our hearts
at the dawn of the lasting day.
For the trumpet will sound,
the dead shall be raised,
and death shall defeat us no more.
Let us ever glory in the cross of Christ
and the triumph of God's great love.
3. Let us raise our voices to the cross of Christ
where the earth and heaven unite.
God has wed creation on the tree of hope
where the darkness becomes our light.
Let us join in the dance of heaven and earth,
give thanks for the goodness of God.
Let us ever glory in the cross of Christ
and the triumph of God's great love.
